

How to Start a Business in North Dakota Checklist

- 1. Form your business. \Box
 - 1.1. Review North Dakota formation options. \Box

There are six main types of business entities in North Dakota, but there is a dozen overall. Choose the one that suits your business best.

1.2. Name your business. \Box

After checking to see your name does not exist, register your business name with the Secretary of State's Office.

1.3. Get an Employer Identification Number. \Box

Apply for an Employer Identification Number at the IRS.

1.4. Register your business in North Dakota. \Box

Sole proprietorships and partnerships do not need to file with the state. LLCs and corporations must file online.

1.5. Obtain necessary permits and licenses. \Box

Check the North Dakota Attorney General Licensing page to see if your business requires any special licenses. If you do, apply for them online.

2. Register your business for taxes. \Box

- 2.1. Register for sales and uses tax. □ Register your business online with the North Dakota Office of State Tax Commissioner.
- 2.2. Register for income tax withholding. □ Register your business online with the North Dakota Office of State Tax Commissioner.

This North Dakota business checklist was created by Zarla.

1

3. Hire employees and report them to the state. \Box

3.1. Purchase workers' compensation insurance. $\hfill\square$

Buy this insurance coverage from North Dakota Workforce Safety and Insurance.

3.2. Report new hires to the North Dakota Department of Human Services. □ Provide the necessary information for every new employee and rehire.

This North Dakota business checklist was created by Zarla.

2